1959 RCA GOLDEN JUBILEE

CELEBRATION
RECORDING

NEW & RENEWING MEMBERS

All new or renewing RCA members who complete a 3-year or Lifetime membership application on or before June 30, 2019 receive a special gift—a fully restored recording of RCA's 50th year Golden Jubilee celebration in 1959. In this recording you can hear the voices of many wireless luminaries including:

- ★ W.E.D. Stokes, the first RCA Chairman
- ★ Captain H.J. Rounds, Armstrong Medal winner, 1952
- ★ Paul Godley, an RCA member who traveled to Scotland to receive transmissions from the U.S. in the famous 1921 Transatlantic Tests
- ★ Walter Knoop, RCA's President, 1959
- ★ Major E.H. Armstrong, Inventor of frequency modulation and the super heterodyne receiver

Also included on this rare recording is Morse code (CW) sent during the Jubilee event by RCA Vice President Harry Hough on a 1909 spark gap transmitter.

Receive this commemorative recording as a free download when you join or renew your 3-year or Lifetime membership. This historic recording, originally on two LP records distributed to attendees at the Golden Jubilee celebration, was given to RCA by the daughter of a former RCA member. The LP recordings were remastered to digital by RCA member and former Director, Lou Manno.
